Dog Project members who intend to exhibit their animals at the Adams County Fair must complete the following to remain eligible for fair entry and exhibition:

1. Enroll in the Dog Project by the enrollment deadline.
2. Complete and file an Animal Care and Housing Form on 4HOnline by deadline.
3. Complete and file a Dog Health Certificate in 4HOnline by the May 1 deadline.
4. ID all dogs in 4HOnline by May 1 deadline.
5. Attend Animal Record Book Interviews and present an up-to-date E-Record Book.
6. Enter Fair classes online by deadline.
7. Complete and turn in the Dog E-Record Book by the deadline.

Additional Fair-related rules are listed below as well as under each Division/Class:

RULES: (also see Livestock, Equine & Small Animal Rules)

1. Exhibitors must complete a Colorado 4-H Dog Health Certificate and Dog ID in 4-H Online by May 1, 2018 to be eligible for the Adams County Fair and Colorado State Fair. Rabies and Parvo Virus vaccinations are required for eligibility. Rabies Vaccine must be administered by a veterinarian. If vaccinations expire after the May 1st deadline and the start of fair, a current vaccination record must be submitted to the Extension Office PRIOR to the 4-H Dog Contest (July 8).
2. Novice, Open and Utility are to follow AKC rules. Sub-novice, sub-utility and graduate novice follow modified AKC rules.
3. In all obedience classes, a six-foot leash and collar is required, unless instructed otherwise by the judge.
4. No 4-H member may show two dogs in the same obedience class.
5. Acceptable Show Attire:
 - Neat and clean. Boys – slacks and shirt; Girls – slacks or simple skirt and blouse, hair away from face. Jeans are acceptable for obedience classes only.
 - Tennis shoes are recommended, flats and slippers are not acceptable show wear.
6. The show day is long, bring plenty of water, food and a blanket or kennel for your dog to use throughout the day.
7. Dogs should not be left unattended.
8. Exhibitors are responsible to be present and ready for classes in which they are registered. Classes will not be held up for missing exhibitors. (Showmanship and obedience will be run simultaneously.)
9. The member must own his/her project dog individually or in partnership with immediate family members or guardians during the complete duration of the project year. The member must provide the majority of care for the dog(s). Entrants will be encouraged to use the Animal Care and Housing Form for Colorado 4-H Livestock Projects.
10. Sharing of project animals is not permitted.

Dog Eligibility Rules:

1. The progress the dog has made determines the class it should be entered in. The member's years in 4-H has no bearing on which class to enter the dog, EXCEPT Beginner Novice A, which is open only to first year dog project members.
2. No bitch in heat, lactating or obviously pregnant will be allowed to compete in any dog class.
3. Record of the Colorado 4-H Dog Health Certificate and vaccinations must be in the Exhibitors Record Book and submitted to the Extension Office in order to show.
4. After once earning a score of 170 or more in the obedience competition as a 4-H project dog, that same dog is no longer eligible for obedience competition in that same or lower class at any following Adams County Fair.

RULES Cont:

5. A dog with an A.K.C. degree is disqualified from entering the class for which degree was awarded or any lower class unless the degree was won less than four months before the fair, then the dog is eligible for entry in the same class. Rule 4 above takes precedence over this rule.
6. Aggressive dogs will be excused from the ring. Any dog excused from the ring must attend a meeting with the Extension Agent and Dog Superintendents.
7. Dogs in obvious pain from illness or injury will not be allowed to show. If a dog is injured at a show, it will be excused from the ring. Consideration of a dog's physical disability needs to be addressed by the handler and project leader before starting the project. An Adams County Fair approved veterinarian or qualified vet technician's decision on doubtful cases will be accepted as the final word.

RECORD BOOKS
Due Friday following Labor Day, in September; all exhibitors must complete a pre-fair interview.
See Livestock, Equine & Small Animal Rules for more rules/information.
 No Entry Fee

1. Members must complete and turn in (by deadline) a record book for each species in which they exhibit at Fair. If a record book is not completed for each species exhibited, the member will forfeit premiums and be ineligible to exhibit that species at the next year's Fair.
