

Proclamation

Animal Control Appreciation Week

April 13-19, 2025

Whereas, the National Animal Care and Control Association has designated the second week of April as National Animal Control Appreciation Week; and,

Whereas, various federal, state, and local government officials throughout the county take this time to recognize, thank, and commend all Animal Management Officers for the dedicated service they provide to the citizens, public safety, and public agencies and departments across the nation; and,

Whereas, every day, Animal Management Officers put themselves in potentially dangerous situations to protect the health, welfare, and safety of animals and the public; and,

Whereas, the Adams County Board of County Commissioners recognizes and commends the Animal Management Officers for the many dedicated and long hours of service in serving this community and for fulfilling the county's commitment to provide the highest and most efficient level of customer service.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that Board of County Commissioners, of the County of Adams, State of Colorado, does hereby proclaim April 13-19, 2025, as National Animal Control Appreciation Week and encourages all citizens, public safety, health and public service personnel to join us in expressing sincere thanks and appreciation for the many long hours of outstanding service these individuals provide throughout the year to assure the safety and welfare of all.
