

Proclamation

“Bring Your Child to Work Day”

April 24, 2025

Whereas, Bring Your Child to Work Day is a nationwide call to action designed to help our nation's children explore the workforce and inspire them in their future work lives; and,

Whereas, each year, Bring Your Child to Work Day makes positive differences in the lives of our youth by creating a wide range of experiences to instill the confidence necessary to acquire the skills and attitudes to live full lives; and,

Whereas, Bring Your Child to Work Day helps parents bond with their children and secure their status as professional role models; and,

Whereas, there is a recognized challenge in balancing work and family life in today's economy, and Bring Your Child to Work Day helps by giving working parents an opportunity to connect more deeply with their children; and,

Whereas, Bring Your Child to Work Day provides children with the opportunity to see how subjects like math, English, and science are applied in real-world situations; and,

Whereas, children want and expect a future in which they are able to influence all parts of their lives, and Bring Your Child to Work Day provides a forum for our children to explore careers and skills and empowers them to set goals and create a future career path and share their ideas about the workplaces of the future; and,

Whereas, Bring Your Child to Work Day is a public education campaign that amplifies the voices of children, shares the vision of our nation's children for a better future, and works to help girls and boys make their vision for today their reality of tomorrow.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Board of County Commissioners, of the County of Adams, State of Colorado, proclaims April 24, 2025, as Bring Your Child to Work Day in Adams County.
